Find your Escape

---

A serene village with 400 houses upon the hill, all connected with authentic dirt roads, no traffic in between,
children playing outside with their toys or riding their bicycle.

The schoolbus bringing them to school in their shining pink uniform, little rucksack on their back, girls wearing their hair in braids.

The roofs rolling in the landscape, several community pools, each house has its dining table outside and a little shrine within.

A foot volleyball field in the back, young lads playing skilfully with a plastic hacky sack.

Women with painted faces hanging the wash outside, children holding your hand showing the universal peace sign.

Normally you can not pass the barrier, but one of the school children,
proud of his house,
invited us to come and look with our own eyes.
