P. of Poetry

---

Hello, my name is Dasha
I love pretty things, mainly coloured pink
Want to be married with children
And live in the apartment across the river
Just 10 minutes from Crocus City

My name is Mimi
First I wanted to get into the army
Now I will collect my gold medal
And become an IT-specialist
After studying at the university

My name is A.
I take care of 60 chicken,
Balthazar and 5 other cats
Cook every day for the entire family
Look, my daughter went skiing in Sochi!

And my name is X.
I am a tax specialist
Working for the government
If you don't pay your bills
You will end up in prison

My name is K.
I got married in prison
Keep writing poetry though
"It's raining cats and dogs until
At 12 o'clock the dials will stand still"
