
P. of Poetry

Hello, my name is Dasha
I love pretty things, mainly coloured pink
Want to be married with children
And live in the apartment across the river
Just 10 minutes from Crocus City

My name is Mimi

First I wanted to get into the army

Now I will collect my gold medal

And become an IT-specialist

After studying at the university

My name is A.

I take care of 60 chicken,

Balthazar and 5 other cats

Cook every day for the entire family

Look, my daughter went skiing in Sochi!

And my name is X.

I am a tax specialist

Working for the government

If you don't pay your bills

You will end up in prison

My name is K.

I got married in prison

Keep writing poetry though

"It's raining cats and dogs until

At 12 o'clock the dials will stand still"
