
Wooden Shutters

There are special places in the world
Where Revolutions began
Belly buttons of change
Transitions between the tiles

Such as the city of Timisoara
With a square full of pigeons
Where the people stood up against
A ruthless communist dictator

Wooden houses with yellow shutters
Open the shutters once again
Into in(ter)dependency

A quiet, simple life based on Mindfulness and integrity
Serving the wellbeing of mankind

Living in the quality
Of the present presence
The square where all is happening
